Secret Rebel

by Elsie Elliott

BOOK DESCRIPTION

Finn Sullivan

I’m secretly sleeping with my best friend’s little sister—the sheriff’s daughter I swore I’d never touch.

Cora Aldridge is investigating the murder case with my signature in the dead man’s truck.

I’m the cowboy who brings her coffee after hockey.

Then she kisses me at the rink, and I devour her like I’ve been starving for years.

Beside the fire, she straddles my lap while her fingers trace my ink and secrets.

Against the tack-room wall, I whisper filthy promises she makes me keep.

She stays after I tell her what put the scar down my side.

I’m falling hard for her.

My father finds out I’m sleeping with her and sees leverage.

He wants me to use Cora to find out who is sabotaging our ranch.

I refuse—but I don't tell her he asked.

When real records leak, they make it look like I did exactly that.

To protect my family, I kept one secret too many.

And if she believes I already betrayed her, I lose her for good.
