SHADOW HAVEN BOOK 2

Only You, No One Else

by E.W. Silver

BOOK DESCRIPTION

He got his wolf back. He found his fated mate. He let himself want a future for the first time in ten years.

Then Zeke came back.

Not as the man Mark loved. As something worse, resurrected and rewritten by dark magic, carrying a power that reaches directly into Mark's wolf. The one part of him Caster finally healed. The one part of him that cannot survive being broken again.

Mark Garnier has faced loss before. He knows how to survive it.

But Caster St. John is not a loss he can survive.

With the supernatural world fracturing around them and a sanctuary that doesn't exist yet, Mark and Caster face the threat that was always coming — one that knows exactly where to strike. Because the witch didn't just resurrect Zeke. She weaponized everything Mark ever loved and aimed it directly at the bond that saved him.

Hold on to the man he chose. Or be pulled back to the one he can't outrun.

Love brought them here. Trust is the only thing that will get them through.

Only You, No One Else is the second book in the Shadow Haven Series, an emotionally intense MM paranormal romance about impossible choices, unbreakable bonds, and the love worth burning the world for. Mark and Caster's story begins in Book 1, Everything, Every Day for Eternity, and reading in order is essential.
