BOOK DESCRIPTION

The Wolf Prince rejected me, not knowing I was carrying his secret baby girl.

I was a plus-size Omega with terrible status. He was the heir, and he rejected me to keep his crown.

Now he’s the king and his powers are failing. He’s decided that I’m the one fated to fix them.

But he’s wrong. He can force me to be his wife. But I won’t be his fated mate.

I lived among the humans for years, hiding from him.

Now my child’s awakening magic steers us back to him, forcing my car straight to his kingdom.

The second he smells my scent, the mating bond clicks into place.

And he makes his decision. He claims me as his mate and traps me.

His mating mark burns into my skin. But my barely healed heart resists.

I’m furious that the constant pull toward him isn’t letting up.

But fury makes way for wanting. For needing. For my heat.

Because deep down, my big body craves one thing only: his knot.

Will the Wolf King finally claim his little family?

The Ashfield Wolf Kings rule with iron fists and alpha knots. Only their fated mates see underneath the fur of the massive beast. And what they find…is total and utter possession and protection.
