BOOK DESCRIPTION

What if every decision we make creates another version of ourselves in a parallel universe?

Kumar's journey takes us through friendship, romance, betrayal, ambition, and unexpected twists. As he discovers alternate versions of himself living entirely different lives, he begins to unravel the mysteries of parallel timelines, futuristic technology, and the mysterious forces controlling them.

With love, humour, suspense, artificial intelligence, and interdimensional adventures, this novel brings together the characters and storylines of the Kumar universe.

Are our lives governed by destiny, or can we change our future? And what happens when parallel worlds finally collide?

An extraordinary journey through multiple realities, where every choice can change everything.
