BOOK DESCRIPTION

A new Phoenix MC chapter rose from the ashes, but the fire burned so bright, and for so long, can peace last long enough for everyone to heal?

Tommy

I turn up at the Hampshire Chapter in a mess, not only because of the things that happened to me back home, but because I found the love of my life… and lost her before I could claim her as mine.

We met at a festival, we fell in love, and we parted ways, thinking we'd find each other again, but then I lost my phone. It's my fault, but I need to find her. I need her. She calms my soul, and makes me feel safe and seen.

So when she shows up in my life again, throwing herself into my arms, I think I found home at last. But then I find out she's my new VP's daughter.

Leah

He's my soulmate. I know it. The universe put us in each other's paths, not just once, but twice. It's meant to be... but my dad freaks out because he knows what Tommy doesn't yet. I'm pregnant. Our whirlwind romance created beautiful life.

He's still all I want, but he's damaged, and he needs love and support. He needs me. Unfortunately my dad intends to keep us apart, whatever it takes.

Book 6 in the new second Phoenix MC Series! A new chapter, a new President, and a whole mess of brand new problems to deal with. Can love grow in the same place where hate resided for so long?
