BOOK DESCRIPTION

The Map of All Our Lies

She forgot the man she loved. But someone remembers why.

At her mother's funeral, Evelyn Hart encounters a mysterious stranger she is certain she has never met.

Then she discovers a photograph of them together.

On the back, written in her own handwriting, are six unsettling words:

"I chose him. Then I forgot."

Three weeks of Evelyn's life have vanished from her memory. And the stranger, Gabriel Reed, may be the only person who can help her recover them.

As Evelyn follows the clues to her forgotten past, she discovers that she and Gabriel shared a love she can no longer remember.

But their relationship is tangled in something far more dangerous.

A suspicious fire. A family property fraud. Hidden deaths. And a mysterious map connecting secrets that powerful people would do anything to protect.

The closer Evelyn gets to the truth, the more she begins to question everything she believes about her family, her memories and the man she is falling in love with all over again.

Because some secrets are buried to protect the innocent. Others are buried to protect the guilty.

The Map of All Our Lies is a romantic psychological thriller filled with forgotten love, family betrayal, emotional suspense and unexpected revelations.

Perfect for readers who enjoy memory-loss mysteries, complicated relationships, dangerous family secrets and atmospheric romantic suspense.
