BOOK DESCRIPTION

From #1 New York Times bestselling author Devney Perry comes a swoony, laugh-out-loud short story about a childhood crush, a glamping trip gone wrong, and the Montana weekend that changes everything.

Delylah Banks has been secretly in love with her best friend's older brother since she was ten years old. But Noah Chappel is off-limits—always has been, always will be. At least, that's what she keeps telling herself.

When her friend's wedding weekend brings them both back to the Haven River Ranch, Delylah is determined to keep her decade-old crush on Noah under wraps. But between a glamping trip gone spectacularly wrong and a series of mishaps that keep throwing them together, "just friends" is getting harder to fake.
